School Board Acts on Salary, Other Problems

Kenneth M. Forry, Albany Superintendent of Schools, in discussing the budget calendar and the preparation of budgets for 1958-59, reported to the Board of Education at its regular meeting on February 11, that salary increases for school employees are being requested from sources other than property taxes. "The 5% increase in the Child Care Center employees will be covered by money and parent fees," Forry commented. "The cafeteria patrons will cover the 5% increase granted to personnel; and state money and special student fees provide for the 5% increase for the school education staff."

"The $25.00 a month increase for teachers, secretaries, custodians and maintenance staff," commented Forry, "will approximate $30,000. New state apportionments will cover $32,000 of this amount, with the balance made up from the District." He added that no increases were granted to four administrators — himself, Robert G. Griffin, William G. Woolworth and Art Griffin.

"The salary increases granted," concluded Forry, "represent the action on the part of the Board of Education toward making Albany salaries comparable with those paid by like services in neighboring districts."

Among other business that came before the board were the recommendation of William Woolworth for his service as a member of a special committee appointed by the Albany Council on Teacher Education; the authorization for the employment of a lifeguard with no assigned responsibilities, to be on duty whenever Albany Pool is open, whether for instructional or recreational swimming; the appointment of Miss Elze Butler as school librarian; the appointment of Mr. Bruce L. Davis, of Carls, to membership on the Albany School Advisory Committee; acceptance of the resignation of Mrs. Virginia Schaeffer, who has been on leave from Albany High School during the current year.

The board heard reports from Superintendent Forry that Spanish and French are now being offered at Cornell School on a voluntary basis for children in grades 2 thru 4. The Albany High Science Club is scheduled for Wednesday, Feb. 12 from 7:30 to 10 p.m. in the High School cafeteria; and that the playground and athletic fields of the Albany Unified School District are now open at all times and available for public use.

The board heard a report from William Kerr, District Auditor, concerning the condition of accounts for the 1956-57 school year. Kerr stated that, in his opinion, and on the basis of the audit report, the accounts of the school district are in good condition and suggested only minor changes by way of improving accounting practices.

Fund Drive To Improve Y.M.C.A. Conditions Here

The Albany YMCA is a branch of the Berkeley Area in which an all "Capital Funds Campaign" is now getting underway, according to Chairman Bill Simmons of Albany. The Albany Branch, built in 1931, serving a population of 9,000 and having 300 membership, is now serving a population of 18,000 with 970 members.

The program here in Albany has been greatly handicapped with only one club-room and a small all-purpose gym room. This space places a limit of only two group activities at a time. One in the clubroom and one in the gym. This makes it necessary to schedule regular time for each group of boys and girls. Even though individual time is lost waiting to participate in the activities. This makes for the problem of behavior and attendance.

More and more demands are being made upon the use of our facilities which have to be refunded because of their limitations. The Albany YMCA building is to be enlarged at the present site with an additional teen-age lounge room, clubroom, craft room, special exercise room, shower room for women and girls, office and storage space, and a complete modernization of equipment.

BETHLE 265, International Order of Job's Daughters, Albany, will have Visiting Bethels at their regular meeting Thursday, Feb. 20, 1958, at 7:30 p.m. The Albany Masonic Temple, 533 San Pablo Ave., Albany, will be the meeting place. Nancy Ny, Honored Queen, presiding.

FRED TOSHIHIRO IKEDA was awarded the Bachelor of Arts Degree in absentia by Willamette University today. Ikeda was active in his living organization, the YMCA, and Project "M" (a study of the Oregon migrant labor situation). An economics major, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ikeda, 954 Stannard Ave., Albany.

THE LORETTA GREEN '55 Ruth Organization will hold a meeting at the home of Edna Doggett, 7821 Outlook Avenue, Oakland, on the evening of Feb. 25, starting at 8 p.m. Co-hostesses will be Grace Gardner and Mabel Lytle.

BOYS MAY STILL SIGN UP for Little League baseball play by calling at the principal's office of either the Cornell or Marin schools. The boys must be between 9 and 12 years of age. The Little League project proved a huge success here last year, and this season promises to be bigger and better.

ZORAH GROTTTO will hold a crab feed at 6:30 p.m. Saturday evening, Feb. 22, at the Eagles Hall, 2238 San Pablo Avenue in Berkeley. M. Luckenbaugh, a member of the Grotto and Past Master of McKinley Lodge No. 347, will speak on the past eight years he spent in Arabia. The affair is under the direction of Monarch Jack Kuch.

Albany Foreign Exchange Student Tells Of Experiences Living in European Home

(This is the first in a series of articles written by an Albany student who lived with a family in West Germany on the American Field Service Exchange Student Program.)

By KENNETH LOGAN

When I stepped off the train in Duesseldorf, Germany, I was excited but tired from the trip from Rotterdam. In a few minutes I would be meeting the German family with whom I would be living during the summer months. What would it be like as a member of this family? I didn't know then that the following two months would be the most enjoyable and interesting I could spend.

Mr. and Mrs. Eduard Schmitz and their sons Hans Eduard and Norbert, my German family, live in an attractive apartment in the city of Rheidyt, which is located in the industrial Ruhr district of West Germany. For the next two months this would be my home.

Those first busy weeks I had to learn many new customs and ways of doing things, for even eating a meal was different. Remembering to keep both wrists on the table during a meal, eating dinner at two in the afternoon, having soup served last in place of desert, and many dishes were new to me so I had to acquire a taste for them.

I attended my first Germany party a week after I arrived and this too, was different, but fun. Germans are very much in favor of handshaking and this means not only shaking the hands of a few friends but every person present in the room. As this was a large party, I became well acquainted with this old German custom and I had a sore right hand the next day to prove it.

After the first week with the Schmitz family, I looked forward to the coming weeks with them and I knew my time in Germany would be all too short.

Legion Plans 'All Services' Night Friday

Members of the four armed services will join this Friday evening in a special fete sponsored by Albany Post No. 292 of the American Legion. Veterans of the Marine Corps, Air Force, Army and Navy have each arranged a special stunt for their service men, and in addition, there will be a professional show staged by William "Bill" Morum. It is going to be an open house for all Albany veterans who are non-members of the Post. The program will be held at the Veterans Memorial Building and will follow the regular business meeting.

LeRoy W. Holland, chairman of the recent basketball festival for the benefit of the March of Dimes, will receive a check from the Finance Officer, which he will turn over to the Dimes March officials on behalf of Albany's quota.

Those attending the All Services program have been asked to turn out in their uniforms of the vintage of their active service — World War I, World War II, and the Korean Police Action.

Better Government Association Picks List of Candidates

The Albany Better Government Association has endorsed candidates for the coming municipal election, April 8. The purpose of the organization is to make civic service honorable by supporting candidates of ability and integrity for public office, and after election to require no obligation of these candidates other than that of honest, efficient, city government.

On the basis of excellent records of public service and achievement in office the Albany Better Government Association has endorsed Ralph M. Jensen for Chief of Police, and Robert J. Foley for City Attorney. With two seats to be filled on the City Council, the Association has endorsed Lewis M. Howell, on the basis of his splendid record of achievement and dedication to office as Mayor and Councilman in the City of Albany; and Eldon A. Wolf for his demonstrated ability as a leader and public-spirited citizen in this community.

Under the leadership of William McKenna, president, members of the Albany Better Government Association will form committees to conduct the campaign for these candidates. Neighborhood house meetings will be held in the near future so that the voting public may have the opportunity of meeting and talking with these candidates in a small informal group.

Albany High Group Will Sell Rummage

A hard working committee of Albany High members are busily tracking down rummage of all kinds this week for sale next Monday, February 24, at St. George Hall, 2436 Grove St., Oakland.

Mrs. Louis Zavattero, chairman, hopes many closets and shelves will be cleaned and discarded sent in to make this an overwhelming success, as the money raised supports our Student Welfare, School Gift, Campships, and Nourishment funds.

Lamps, blankets, electrical fixtures and costume jewelry are needed, as well as clothes. A call to LA 5-0647 will result in a prompt pick up. Any amount of rummage will be gladly received up to Sunday afternoon, Feb. 23.

J. Yovino Young Enters Race For Muni Judgeship

Former Albany city attorney Joseph Yovino Young, long active in local civic and fraternal affairs, today announced he will be a candidate for judge of the Berkeley-Albany Municipal Court at the June 3rd election. He will seek the bench now held by Judge Louis J. Hardie, who is retiring.

"I know that everyone in the Berkeley-Albany area, as well as throughout Alameda County, regards as I do the planned retirement of Judge Hardie," declared Young in expressing his views to a group of Albany community leaders. "He has brought to our local courts more than an example of justice in its purest form. His dignity, integrity and impartiality have set a pace which most others can only hope to equal. It is my sincere desire to be able to carry on this splendid tradition of tempered justice which he has established, and which the people of our community have learned to expect."

Young, 56, served as city attorney for two terms, 1938-1946. A native of Boston, Mass., he has resided in Alameda County since 1907, and in Albany for the past 22 years. His home is at 707 Gateview Avenue, where he resides with his wife, Mary Jane, and two children, G. Michael, 20, a senior at the University of Santa Clara, and JoAnn, local high school student.

A graduate of the University of California, receiving his A.B. degree in 1926 and law degree from Boalt Hall of Law in 1929, Young's legal experiences have extended from the courts in California and the United States District and Circuit courts, to the Supreme Court in Washington, D.C., where he was admitted to practice shortly after starting his law career. He is a member of the firm of Young, Whitton and Dorn, and maintains offices in downtown Oakland and in Albany.

A member of the American Bar Association, Young last year attended the association's conventions in New York and London. He is also a member of the California State Bar Association, Alameda County Bar Association, the Law Forum, American Juridical Society, and Phi Alpha Delta law fraternity.

Pointing out that the Berkeley-Albany Municipal Court is a merger of the former courts of both cities, Young stresses the importance of having representation from the two neighboring communities.

"There are two judges presiding over this court," explained Young. "One of whom is Judge Redmond Staats, Jr., a resident of Berkeley. Retiring Judge Hardie is a resident of Albany. It is apparent that the voters, the majority of whom live in Berkeley, favor an equal division between the two cities and for this reason I am confident they will seek a successor to Judge Hardie from the city of Albany. My interests in the welfare of the people in this progressive section of Alameda County are a matter of record."

Young for the past 20 years has devoted his services as legal counsel and director for the Berkeley Humane Society a charitable organization promoting human education in the care, prevention of cruelty to animals, and has been president of the society for 10 years. His civic and service affiliations also include charter membership in the Albany Exchange Club, Albany Maccabees, Eagles Lodge, B. P. O. Elks, Knights of Columbus, Metropolitan Club, Albany Chamber of Commerce, Pi Kappa Phi Alumni Association, and life membership in the University of California Alumni Association.

Names Siated To Go On Ballot In City Election

The filing period for candidates to appear on the city election ballot April 8 having expired Feb. 13, City Clerk Myrtle J. McLean has announced the following as having qualified:

For City Council, two to be elected: Lewis M. Howell, incumbent; Mrs. Kathe S. Zahn, incumbent; William A. Mulligan, retired; Eldon A. Wolf, electronics technician.

For City Attorney, Robert J. Foley, incumbent.

For Chief of Police, Ralph M. Jensen, incumbent.

For Board of Education, three to be elected: Leslie L. Bennett, incumbent; Max D. Kelley, incumbent; Charles A. Pinkham, incumbent; Charles V. Hurley.

There will be 43 polling places. The location of the polling places, together with the names of the officials named to each, are contained in an official listing appearing in today's Albany Times.

Old Fashioned Valentines At Albany Library

On display at the Albany Public Library are some old-fashioned Valentines from the family collection of Councilman and Mrs. Lee Keek. Many of the Valentines were sent to Mr. Keek's mother when she taught in a little county school in Iowa about 1915.

Among the books on the shelves is a history of Valentines written by Ruth Webb Lee, one of America's foremost authorities on antique collecting.

The book is the first comprehensive historical survey of Valentines tracing the origin of romantic Valentine's Day back to early Christianity, and follows its development through to its 18th Century heyday when elaborate Valentine cards of different types were exchanged by lovers of many nations, particularly in America and England.

Camera Club Gives Trophy For Color Slide

James W. Shepard, 1052 Neilson Street, Albany, was awarded the Albany Camera Club Trophy for the best color slide of the month, at the regular meeting on Jan. 30, according to Irvin J. Pruter.

This was the first time the cup has been awarded. Shepard will keep the cup until next month's meeting when a new batch of pictures will be judged. His picture was titled "Sunset."

Runner up was Mrs. Mabel Nelson with her picture titled "Ducks." These two pictures and one each by DeVore Watt and Marjorie Stott will be sent to N40 competition.

Bob Howden, chairman of the color division of the Berkeley Camera Club, judged the slides. He also judged the Christmas pictures and chose the following winners — DeVore Watt, best indoor decorations; Mabel Nelson, best outdoor decorations; and James Shepard, best children at Christmas time.

Gus Chandler's pictures and talk were very interesting and enjoyed by the members and guests. Richard Rodrick, program chairman, reports that George Irwin, retired Inspector of the Alameda County District Attorney's office, will show pictures of his European trip last summer, at the next regular meeting, Feb. 27.

Posture Class for Women At Marin

A class in physical conditioning and posture, open to the enrollment of all Bay Area women, is offered on Monday evenings, 7:30 to 9:30 at the Marin School auditorium, 1400 Marin Avenue. This class, offered by the Albany Adult Education Center and instructed by Mrs. Irene Bertram, is planned to improve the physical appearance and posture of women of all ages.

During the class sessions, light exercises will be scheduled for those who cannot undertake strenuous exercising. In addition, there will be instruction in the development of coordination, flexibility, and general relaxation.

COUNCIL APPROVES TAX BILL CONTRACTS

The Albany City Council at its regular meeting Monday night approved 4 to 1 resolutions authorizing the mayor to sign contracts with the Remington Rand Company and the County of Alameda to complete a move which has been under study for some time and which a majority of the council members feel will contribute to more efficient handling, yet retain city control over city taxes and adjustments.

Remington Rand will re-evaluate property in the city to bring assessments up to date. The firm will prepare new assessment rolls on both secured and unsecured property. The cost will be approximately $1680, according to Administrative Assistant Robert G. Olson. A second resolution authorized the mayor to execute an agreement with the County of Alameda for the supply of tabulating cards showing assessed valuations.

Councilman Blank, chairman of the finance committee, spoke in favor of the action on the ground it would bring all assessments into line; that it would speed up procedure, and would still keep all tax records available at the city hall for citizens seeking information or asking for adjustments. He admitted it would cost a few hundred dollars more than if the entire job were turned over to the county, but would retain the city's independence in control of its tax rate.

Mrs. Zahn opposed the action on the ground it would cost more than if the county handled the entire matter, and declared she was against any move which she believed would add to the costs either directly or indirectly. She offered figures she said she had obtained from the county quoting $1050 as the county's estimate of the cost if the county were given the job.

Payment on a contract for professional services for study of the city zoning plans with the firm of Hahn, Wise and Barber, was also approved, with the sum of $200 withheld to cover the furnishing of a city zoning map. Original total of the contract was $1200. Mrs. Zahn held out for withholding $450 on the contract price, and abstained from voting when the measure was passed 4 to 0.

The council also approved the placing of a loading zone at 925 San Pablo Avenue, when there were no protests presented at the public hearing. The vote was unanimous.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the progress and prosperity of the community as a whole is dependent upon the collective health of all its citizens; and

WHEREAS, diseases of the heart and blood vessels are the major sources of death in the United States; and

WHEREAS, the Alameda County Heart Association and its parent organization, the American Heart Association, are the agencies responsible for carrying on the programs in research, education and community service regarding heart problems; and

WHEREAS, the Alameda County Heart Association has already enlisted the active cooperation of thousands of women in this county to work for the cause on Heart Sunday.

Now, therefore, I, LEWIS M. HOWELL, Mayor of the City of Albany, do hereby proclaim the month of February to be HEART MONTH, and do earnestly call upon all local citizens to support the February 23rd activity known as Heart Sunday, in every way possible . . . by working in the campaign and by giving generously for the cause of heart disease.

PROCLAIMED this 18th day of February, 1958, in the City of Albany, State of California.

LEWIS M. HOWELL,

Mayor of the City of Albany.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The fact that all things are possible to God will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday at 533 San Pablo Ave., Albany.

Scriptural passages in the Lesson-Sermon on "Mind" will include the following from Isaiah (40:28): "Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of His understanding."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following (180:25): "When man is governed by God, the ever-present Mind who understands all things, man knows that with God all things are possible. The only way to this living Truth, which heals the sick, is found in the Science of Divine Mind as taught and demonstrated by Christ Jesus."

The Golden Text is from Job (36:5): "Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any; he is mighty in strength and wisdom."

Shopping—To make shopping a pleasure rather than a chore, the California State Automobile Association advises that you start out after 9:30 a.m. and return before 4 p.m. It's also advisable to place big packages in the trunk and that you avoid placing parcels on the rear window ledge because sudden stops can make these packages dangerous "flying projectiles."

AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION...

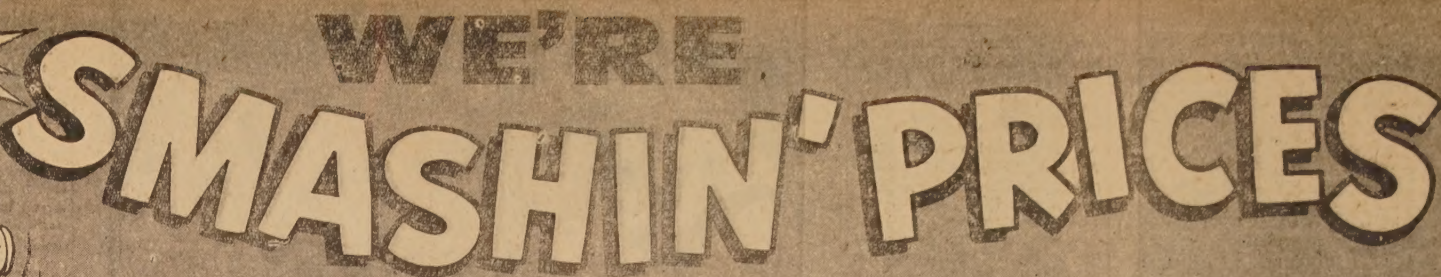

Although it weighs only an ounce or so, a Bank of America checkbook gives you big protection for your money! When you go shopping, you can pay by check—no need to carry cash and run the risk of loss or theft. And when you pay bills by mail with Bank of America checks, your canceled checks provide proof of the payments you've made. Why not open a regular or Tenplan checking account at our bank now?

NEED EARTH-MONEY?

If you need money to repair your vehicle, or to take care of some other unexpected expense—medical bills, for example—consider a Timeplan Personal Loan! Every year some half a million Californians meet financial emergencies with Bank of America Timeplan Personal Loans, ranging from $100 to $2,500. Arrangements are quick and easy, and the cost is reasonable. May we help you?

'RIDGERUNNERS' JEEP Club members of San Diego, Calif., demonstrate how they could rescue and transport victims trapped under debris of buildings shattered by war or earthquake. The four-wheel-drive vehicle club is the only one of its kind known to have joined local civil defense in a group as a rescue outfit. In addition to their regular civil defense rescue classes, the 60 club members conduct runs into nearby desert and mountain country to practice search and rescue of plane crash victims, lost tourists and other emergencies. Adult Swimming Classes Offered

The Albany Adult Education Center is offering a number of swimming classes at Albany Pool, Pomona and Portland Avenues. These classes, open to the enrollment of those residing in or out of Albany, are held on Monday and Wednesday evenings. Those enrolling may attend either once or twice a week.

The classes are so scheduled that there are two student groups and two instructors, each hour. The schedule for beginning students, both Monday and Wednesday evenings, is 6:30 to 7:30 and 8:30 to 9:30. The beginning intermediates, those who can swim but not very well, are scheduled on these same evenings, 6:30 to 7:30 and 7:30 to 8:30. The more advanced intermediates are 7:30 to 8:30 on both evenings.

Manhattan Miracle Film To Be Shown

This outstanding film, "Miracle in Manhattan", covering the entire four months' New York Crusade by Billy Graham, will be shown at the First Baptist Church of Albany, Wed., Feb. 24, at 7:30 p.m. This is a 49 minute black and white film that shows the power of God's Word in the world's largest city. Cliff Barrows conducts the great 2000 voice choir with Beverly Shea singing, "How Great Thou Art." Ethel Waters is heard singing, "His Eye Is On The Sparrow." The public is cordially invited.

Pork In Excellent Supply

Pork is selling at most attractive prices at your market because the supply is so good. This opens up a panorama of pork dishes that have been the delight of homecoming husbands for generations in America. Get to know the thriftier cuts of pork this season, for dishes that will bless the budget and vary your meals. Thrifty pork buys include the hocks, the shoulder, the end cut pork chops and roasts, the smoked picnic and ham shanks. All these cuts have complete high quality protein, and an extra share of vitamin B₁, for which pork is particularly famed. It's good to know, too, that recent research indicates that cooked meat, as it is produced and prepared today, has significantly less fat, fewer calories and more protein than the values given in current textbooks.

A combination of herb-laced stuffing in juicy pork chops, baked with sweet potatoes, and topped with apples, this is one of those meals that make history when you serve it to a hungry family. It's the kind of dish you can make ahead, put in the oven, and be free for an hour before dinner!

Baked Stuffed Pork Chops

6 1-inch thick rib or loin pork chops	1/2 teaspoon each, sage and thyme
6 medium sweet potatoes	1/2 cup brown sugar (firmly packed)
1 1/2 cups finely diced apple	1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 cup raisins	2 tablespoons butter
1 cup fresh bread crumbs	1/2 cup orange juice
1/2 teaspoon salt	3 apples, cored and halved
2 tablespoons sugar

Have meat man slit chops for stuffing. Par-boil potatoes; peel and slice lengthwise. While potatoes are cooking, combine apple, raisins, bread crumbs, salt, sugar, sage and thyme. Spoon stuffing into chops; skewer. Brown chops on both sides in skillet, about 15 minutes. Combine brown sugar and nutmeg. Layer sliced potatoes with brown sugar mixture in a 2-quart casserole. Dot with butter. Top with pork chops; pour over orange juice. Place apples over pork chops. Cover. Bake in a moderate oven, (350° F.) 1 hour, 15 minutes. YIELD: 6 servings.

Ready for San Francisco's Chinese New Year — The 4656th year of the Chinese lunar calendar, the Year of the Dog, will be welcomed February 21-23 by Sze Tze, the magnificent lion imported from Hong Kong for the annual event sponsored by the Chinese Chamber of Commerce. Here, the Keeper of the Lions, Gee Sheu Wai (or John Gee), blesses the lion with water sprinkled from a Chinese citrus leaf as tiny Donna Wong looks on. Ceremonies took place in Kong Chow Temple, oldest in America. Sze Tze will ward off evil spirits and show the way to happiness and prosperity as he dances in the February 22 parade which will also feature a new block-long Golden Dragon. Chinatown, with an estimated population of 30,000, is the largest in the world outside of the Orient, according to the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

PARKING—A phase of motoring that proves particularly difficult for women is parking. Two general rules that will facilitate getting in and out of limited areas, suggests the California State Automobile Association, are: 1) Back into a space rather than "nose" into it, and 2) Leave enough space in front so that if you get hemmed in from the rear you will still be able to get out with a minimum effort.

how to TRAVEL WITH CHILDREN ...IN SAFETY

WOMEN'S TRAVEL DIRECTOR

WHEN YOU MOTOR WITH YOUNGSTERS, REMEMBER THESE "DON'TS" THAT INSURE THEIR SAFETY, YOUR PEACE OF MIND, AND HAPPY MOTORING FOR ALL:

DON'T LET "CREEPERS" CREEP AT LARGE. THEY CAN BE HURT — OR DISTRACT THE DRIVER.

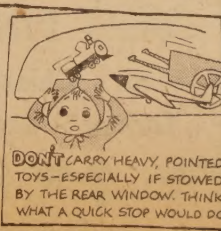

DON'T ALLOW LOLLIPOPS OR ICE CREAM-ON-A-STICK WHILE THE CAR'S MOVING.

DON'T PERMIT WRESTLING-OR ANY OTHER DISTRACTIONS. IF THE KIDS GET TOO WILD, PULL OFF THE ROAD AND STOP.

DON'T LET YOUNGSTERS STICK HEADS, ARMS OR HANDS OUT OF THE WINDOW.

DON'T CARRY HEAVY, POINTED TOYS-ESPECIALLY IF STOWED BY THE REAR WINDOW. THINK WHAT A QUICK STOP WOULD DO!

DO IMPRESS ON CHILDREN THE IMPORTANCE OF OBSERVING SAFE-DRIVING RULES. THEY'LL BE BETTER PASSENGERS, SAFER DRIVERS WHEN THEY GROW UP.

LAW IN ACTION

LEGALLY DEAD?

If no one has seen hide nor hair of you for seven unexplained years, a California court may presume that you are dead and name someone to look after your property.

After three more years of absence — making ten in all—the court may order your estate distributed just as though you had died a natural death. It may divide the property before the three years are up, if your heirs will post a bond to make good your property should you come back alive after all. But after ten years you have no claim on the estate.

Courts may declare a person dead before the seven years are up if the facts seem to warrant it. For example when a person vanished 10,000 feet up in the Sierra during a blizzard, when a ship's passenger disappeared in mid-ocean between ports, or when a soldier in battle disappeared after his own side fell back and the enemy buried those left on the field of battle.

The court may also name a

Note: California lawyers offer this column so you may know about our laws.

trustee to look after a missing person's property after ninety days, if it needs attention.

In any event, the court prescribes certain rigid steps which must be taken. These steps call for a petition to the court, the publication of a notice of the court's hearing on the petition, the hearing, the naming of an administrator, and other safeguards.

The administrator looks after the property and makes payments for family support. He acts under court supervision.

If the missing person comes back before the ten years are up, he may go to the court, prove his identity, get an accounting of his property, and resume ownership under court order.

Footsteps Of Time

Life-size marble, circa 3000 B.C.

Iraqi soil is probably the world's most fertile for producing relics of the past, because the inhabitants of this ancient land can trace their country's history back more than ten thousand years. Tools and implements from the Stone Age have been discovered in caves of Northern Iraq, an area which also has yielded remnants from mankind's next era, the Neolithic Period. During this period, approximately five to ten thousand years ago, human beings started cultivating the earth's soil and domesticating its animals. Archaeologists have revealed some of the first human agricultural settlements at such sites as Jarmo and Hassuna.

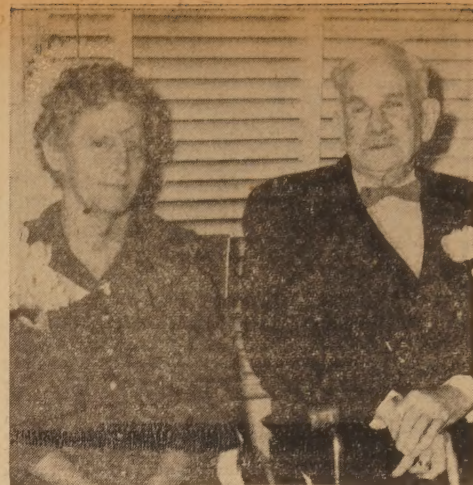

Sometime before 3,000 B.C. the waters of the Persian Gulf receded and human settlers moved to the Southern plain, founding the world's first urban civilization. These people, the Sumerians, established a rich society organized into powerful "city states." Splendid, highly intricate treasures from Sumerian civilization have been uncovered at Ur-of-the-Chaldees.

One of the best preserved ruins of Iraq dates from about 500 B.C.—the fascinating city of Hatra, which was not discovered until 1951. The excavations soon brought to light five shrines, a tower-tomb, large residential buildings and a section of one of the city gates. Many statues, coins and Aramaic inscriptions were discovered which are particularly valuable in illuminating gaps in a long-observed period of Iraqi history.

After the Arab conquest in 641 A.D. Iraq wrote one of the most brilliant chapters in her long history. Under the Abbasid Caliphs, Baghdad became the seat of government, culture and intellectual achievement. At a time when no academies or universities existed in Europe, Baghdad boasted of a famous academy, Dar al-Hikmah, which included a museum, a library and a bureau of translation, as well as a hospital with trained physicians and pharmacists.

Describing the momentous intellectual activity which sprang up in Iraq under Islam, H. G. Wells wrote in The Outline of History: "For some generations before Muhammad, the Arab mind had been smoldering, it had been producing poetry and much religious discussion; under the stimulus of the national and racial successes, it presently blazed out with a brilliance second only to that of the Greeks during their best period. It revived the human pursuit of science. If the Greek was the father, then the Arab was the foster-father of the scientific method. Through the Arabs it was, and not by the Latin route, that the modern world received that gift of light and power."

SPEAKING OF CARDS

A CARD I.Q. TEST

Chances are you've looked at the picture cards hundreds of times while playing your favorite game of Bridge, Poker or Hearts. But how much do you really know about the unusual details to be found in these characters of the paste-board palace?

The following questions were first compiled by Gertrude McGiffert and published in Games Digest. Don't be dismayed, she cautions, if you cannot answer even one. And if you answer one, she says, you're brilliant; two, colossal; and three, you're cheating. See how you score.

1. What king shows his profile?
2. What king has no mustache?
3. What king holds a battle-axe?
4. What king wears ermine?
5. What king holds no sword?
6. What king's beard is not parted?
7. What king has a daisy belt buckle?
8. What queen has a scepter?

9. What queen has bands of Grecian keys?
 10. What queen has a long belt buckle?
 11. What queen shows her hair next to her face on one side?
 12. What queen wears a breast pin?
 13. What queen holds her flower between her first and second finger?
 14. What jack wears a leaf in his cap?
 15. What jack shows his full face?
 16. What jack holds a leaf to his lips?
 17. What jacks carry battle-axes?
 18. What jack has no mustache?
 19. What jack carries a staff?
 20. What jack has two rows of curls?
 21. What jack wears buttons on his coat?
- (For the correct answers, get out your deck of playing cards.)
- This card quiz is one of the interesting selections to be found in the new illustrated anthology, "The Fireside Book of Cards," (Simon and Schuster, $5.95) edited by Oswald Jacoby and Albert Morehead. The book is about cards but not how to play them and contains 114 selections from history, humor, art and curios of the card table designed to satisfy the reading appetite of every card player.

Many years ago, in the golden days of the Arab empire, regal palaces in Damascus resounded to the happy beat of dancing feet and rhythmic drums pulsing forth the music of raks assamah, the traditional court dances performed by lovely ladies of the court on festive evenings before a royal audience. On long moonlit summer nights, when the graceful, whirling dancers wove intricate patterns on polished marble floors, bewitched audiences surrendered gladly to the hypnotic spell cast by the winsome maidens.

"In our rhythmic motions of the dance we lose our mundane selves and approach the infinite," one noted sheikh explained. And so the dances continued far into the night, onlookers swaying to the intoxicating rhythms, the mounting crescendo of sight and sound as each succeeding dance approached its dazzling finale.

The popularity of raks assamah soon spread from the courts of Damascus to the entire Arab World—eastward to Baghdad, westward to the palaces of Granada and Cordova. From faraway Spain the Arabs borrowed additional steps which were incorporated into the mainstream of traditional dances. In Damascus itself, a distinguished audience welcomed talented performers like Princess Leila of Andalusia, who led her handmaidens in a famous Spanish dance entitled The Fall of the Jasmine.

At the peak of its popularity, raks assamah counted many important personages among its graceful devotees. Princess Abbassa, sister of the famed Harun al-Rashid, and Princess Waladah, daughter of the Caliph Marwan, became two of the most famous court dancers in the Arab World.

In succeeding centuries, however, these marvelous dances disappeared during the disintegration of the Arab empire. Events such as the Mongol invasion of Baghdad and the Castilian conquest of Granada threatened to place this precious folk heritage in permanent eclipse, for the magic memory of raks assamah lay buried in the Aghani glossary and the half-forgotten Muwashshat Andalusia.

But the twentieth century rebirth of the Arab World stimulated renewed interest in ancient accomplishments, and modern folklore lovers in Syria have successfully rescued raks assamah from oblivion. Today, by the tinkling fountains of Damascus, underneath the delicate arches of the Aam palace and beside the massive portals of Kasr el-Heir, young Syrian maidens are recreating their beautiful national dances as the city of the Omayyads once again echoes the strains and tread of raks assamah.

Ranchero Casserole

You cut down on calories—but not the fun of eating

"RANCHERO" CASSEROLE (8 servings)

- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1 medium onion, chopped
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 1/2 cup dried beef
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1/2 cup nonfat dry milk
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1 egg, beaten
- 1 cup whole kernel corn
- 1/2 cup shredded sharp Cheddar cheese

Sauté chopped onion and pepper in butter until browned. Add dried beef and green pepper. Cook five minutes. Blend in flour, nonfat dry milk, and egg. Simmer until thickened. Blend in by first adding small amount of hot mixture to egg—then into hot dried beef. (If frozen it need not be cooked.) Pour into quart casserole. Sprinkle with cheese. Bake in oven—30 minutes.

The Hanging Church

The Church of the Holy Virgin Mary, called al-Moallaka or the Hanging Church, was built in Cairo about 349 A.D. It was erected between two bastions of a Roman fort called the Fort of Babylon, and in one of these bastions is the baptismal font and chapel.

This church is one of the best examples of Coptic architecture in Egypt, and is famed for the intricate carving and decoration of its screens of cedar, ivory, ebony, and mother-of-pearl. On these screens are hung icons depicting the Saints of the Christian church.

The large, massive stone pulpit is raised above the heads of the congregation, symbolic of Christ's preaching on the Mount. The pulpit is placed to the left of the altar. The altar is placed in the Eastern wall of the church in order to call to the mind of the worshipper that the beginning of man was in the East, and the Redemption of man at the Crucifixion was also in the East. The baptismal font, of solid marble incised with an ancient Egyptian hieroglyph for water, is placed near the door of the church.

The artistry within the church shows a decided Egyptian origin. All of the wall surface is covered with intricate geometrical design and many details of beautiful workmanship. There are inscriptions in Greek, Arabic and Koefic script used as part of this decoration. Some of the portraits of Saints, used as icons, seem to have been influenced directly by the almond eyes and stylized posture of the wall paintings of Ancient Egypt.

Ancient Monasteries In The Desert

Still today in the Libyan and Arabian Deserts there are old Christian Monasteries where monks continue to respect the strict discipline established by Saint Pachomas many centuries ago. Thirty years ago the excursion to these convents was a very long and tiring expedition that could not be made except on camel back. Today, this visit has become one of the most picturesque and pleasant trips to be made by the tourist.

The Wadi Natrun monasteries are near to Cairo in the Natrun Valley. These convents are built along a line that runs Northwest from the beginning of the Valley. Two convents are close to each other, the Amba Bchai convent and that of the Suryani, or Syrian, for when monastic life started here, the monks were grouped according to their nationality. The Deir (convent) Abu Makar and the Deir Baranous are respectively situated twelve miles to the Southwest and seven miles Northwest of the Suryani Convent.

The four Wadi Natrun convents are built more or less along the same plan. But the most interesting of them is Deir el-Suryani, erected in the 7th century. It covers an area of about 2,500 acres including the different buildings, courtyards and gardens. Convents are always situated where water supply is abundant. The enclosure printing press and hand working machines on which are published precious religious books that only the convent possesses. The press is also used to produce many other works.

Whoever wishes to do so may become a monk. All that is required is a period of observation and preparation of one year. Monks make vows to devote themselves to chastity, poverty and a sedentary life. Bishops and patriarchs are chosen from among them. The Orthodox Patriarch of Egypt is elected by the monks of all the different monasteries.

Within the walls of the convent the monks do all their own work, while they live retired from the world. Although the contemplative life they lead does not allow them much time for meals, they feed themselves with their own produce just as they have done for centuries. Their diet consists mainly of bread, beans and dates and occasionally oranges and olives.

Deir el-Suryani has its own

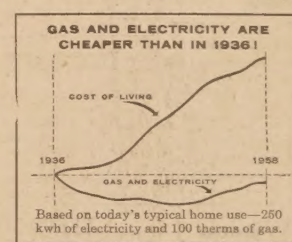

Your meters make pretty good thermometers

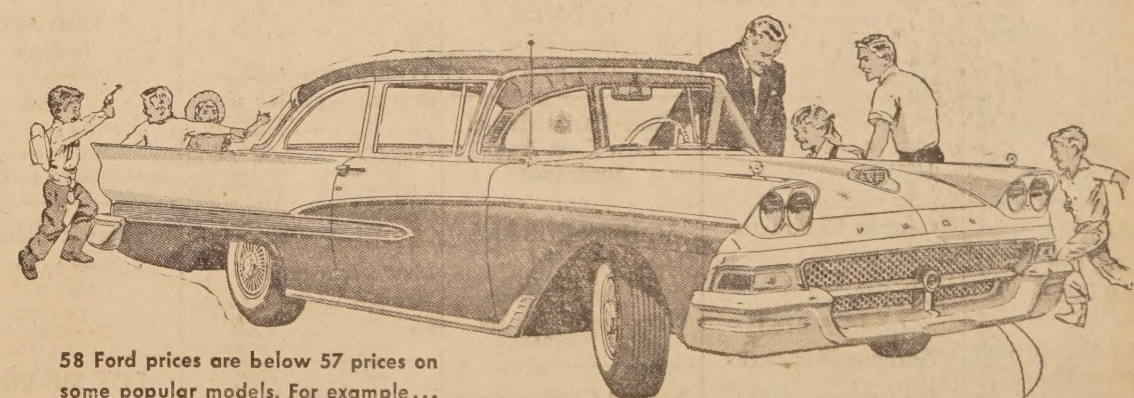

When the temperature drops, it takes more gas and electricity to make you comfortable. That's why your P. G. and E. bill is higher this time of year.

Anyone who reads gas and electric meters has a pretty accurate record of this winter's temperatures. Cold weather and long nights mean more heat, more lights... more work for most all your appliances.

But two things help take the sting out of your winter bills: P. G. and E. rates are lower than in 1936... and your unit cost of gas and electricity goes down as your use increases

Want a Garden?

This home is ideal for a couple who love to grow flowers and work in the yard. The lot is 30x100, with a large rear yard and brick patio. Level entrance to the four rooms, which are in beautiful condition. Large closets. Home is just 16 years old. 1/2 block to Solano Avenue bus. $12,950.00. Evenings, Mr. Ellsworth.

Medium-Sized Garden?

Beautifully landscaped rear yard with patio and barbecue. All the neighbors in this fine district are proud of their homes, so all are equally well-kept. It's near Albany Park and High School, a block and a half to MacGregor Elementary School, and 1/2 block to Portland bus. Newly painted inside and out. Separate dining room and breakfast room. Inside entrance to garage. If you can make a pretty good monthly payment, try a low down payment. $14,500.00. Evenings, Mr. Ellsworth.

A Small Garden?

Also a half block to Solano. Five rooms in excellent condition, dining room, two bedrooms, separate laundry room, and breakfast. Small, easy to handle yard with patio and barbecue. Garage under the one elevated bedroom. Possibility of working out a very low down payment. $12,750.00. Evenings, Mr. Ellsworth.

No Garden

Just collect the rents and smile. A new duplex on a small lot. No worry about tenants keeping up the yard. Sparkling two bedroom unit with beam ceilings throughout and a view of the Bay, plus a ground level one bedroom unit. All tile kitchens and baths. It's in Albany where the taxes are low. Full price only $19,600.00. Evenings, Mrs. Boykin.

New Home

We have a 30-year FHA loan available for you with just $2,300.00 down and you can be the proud owner of a new two bedroom El Cerrito home. The unfinished basement has an inside entrance and you can finish it into a large rumpus room. Priced at only $13,400.00. Try to beat that! Evenings, Mrs. Boykin.

Elasticity

We mean you can stretch this home. If the three bedrooms and two baths aren't as many as you need, the downstairs can easily be made into two more bedrooms. Finish it yourself and you'll save money. Only two years old, a ranch style with shake roof. Level entrance and a huge double garage. Electric kitchen with built-ins. We might make an exchange for your present property. $22,950.00 with good financing available. Evenings, Mr. Williams.

Thousand Oaks

Send the children off safely to Thousand Oaks school — no busy streets to cross. The home is on Peralta, less than two blocks to Solano. And is in fine condition. Two bedrooms, 220 wiring, wall-to-wall carpets included. Only $12,500.00. Evenings Mr. Williams.

Three Bedrooms

For $17,500.00 and we can let you become the new owner of a view of San Francisco and the Bay. You also will own a six year old three bedroom modern stucco home. A patio, workshop and inside entrance to garage. Carpets included. We'll even try to trade your present home in. El Cerrito. Evenings, Mrs. Boykin.

Wide Street

Key Route Boulevard beckons you. Here's a six room, two bedroom home near Albany High and the Park. In good shape, completely redecorated. Tell us about your low down payment. We might surprise you when you find out you don't have to build up a large down payment before you buy. $13,750.00. Evenings, Mr. Williams.

New Financing

We have some new financing available on homes, and are in a position to obtain a loan that would not have been possible for the past few years. Call any of our salesmen for information.
